

FILM PRODUCTION MANAGEMENT CRASH COURSE

MAY 8-12, 2017

TRAINER: Rebecca Rivo - New York-based production manager/producer who has worked on such movies as Letters to Juliet (2010), Speak (2004) and Person of Interest (2011)

TIMING: 11:00-19:00 (timing is subject to change)

COST: Free of Charge

DESCRIPTION:

5 day crash course (in class) on film production management is financed by US State Department and is organized by US Embassy in Tbilisi and Film in Georgia in cooperation with School of New Cinema (Caucasus University). The course is designed to level up existing production managers in Georgia and familiarize them with American standards of working. The course will cover following subjects:

- 🎬 Basics of Production
- 🎬 American production standards and etiquette
- 🎬 Budgeting
- 🎬 Line Producing
- 🎬 Paper Work
- 🎬 Location Management

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

- 🎬 Experience of working on at least one feature film or at least 5 commercials (working on international production is a priority)
- 🎬 Recommendation letter from a production company
- 🎬 English Independent User

Eligible candidates will be chosen by the US Embassy in Tbilisi and Film in Georgia team. Please send your CV and Recommendation letter to Tatia Bidzinashvili (e-mail: tbidzinashvili@enterprise.gov.ge; Mob: 599046262) no later than 21 April, 2017

FILM IN GEORGIA

